

Economic Stabilization Task Force

Appointed by the City & Borough of Juneau's Mayor

Assembly Charge

The purpose of the task force is to review the economic landscape and make recommendations to the assembly. In particular, the task force should:

1. Examine federal and state government financial assistance programs and identify and prioritize any "gaps" that exist.
2. Identify and promote strategies that enable businesses to continue operations safely such as curbside pick-up, take-away, delivery, and other innovative services. Additionally, explore strategies that enable businesses and Juneau's economy to recover in the long term.
3. Act as Liaison with the Governor's Alaska Economic Stabilization Team
